Mmmmmmmmmmm Numb. 6448.

The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, June 21. 1722.

London, June 21.
Yeſterday arrived a Mail from France.

Moſcow, May 15.

'ALL the Troops that were here are 'imbarked for Aſtracan, under the 'Command of Meſſ. Mathuskin and 'Romanſoff. The General Capita- 'tion that was reſolved to be raiſed throughout the 'Czar's Dominions is regulated at the Rate of 80 'Copiken per Man, and Officers to collect it are to 'be ſent into all the Provinces. The Czar has 'cauſed Enquiry to be made into the Revenues of 'the Church, and they are found to be very rich: 'But the common People ſeem diſpleaſed, that in 'purſuance of the late Regulation touching Divine 'Service, of which the Czar himſelf was the Chief 'Compoſer, the little Chapels have been all abo- 'liſhed, and alſo the Images that ſtood in Niches ex- 'poſed in the Streets. The Nobility of the lower 'Order having complained to the Czar of being op- 'preſſed by the Nobility of higher Rank, he has e- 'ſtabliſhed an High Commiſſion Court to examine 'into thoſe Grievances and to ſee them redreſſed. 'M. de Campredon, Miniſter of France, and the 'Baron de Mardefeld, Miniſter of Pruſſia, have hi- 'red Country Houſes at ſome Leagues diſtance 'from this City till the Czar returns. His Czariſh 'Majeſty has ſent a Liſt of Perſons of Diſtinction 'to the Governour of Syberia, whom he is to 'cauſe to be ſet at Liberty in order to their retur- 'ning to their own Countries. It has been conſi- 'dered in Council where to fix upon a proper Per- 'ſon to be ſent in Quality of Envoy to Conſtanti- 'nople, to take Care of the Czar's Affairs and pre- 'ſerve a good Underſtanding between the two 'Courts: This Matter is attended the more, be- 'cauſe the Grand Signior himſelf has ſignified his 'deſire to have a Ruſſian Miniſter to be Reſident 'at his Court, that he may be conferred with as 'Occaſions ſhall require.

Lisbon, May 21. The Prince Don Franciſco has been indiſpoſed for ſome Days paſt, but at preſent is perfectly recovered, and ſets out to Day in order to hunt at Amora-Correa. At the Requeſt of the Inhabitants at the Rio de Janeiro, the King is pleaſed to continue Don Aërez de Saldaigne d'Albuquerque in his Government in the Brazils. The Royal Hiſtorical Academy continues its uſual Meeting, and on the 16th paſt the Secretary diſtributed to ſome of the Members the Manuſcripts he lately cauſed to be brought from the Tower of Tombo and the Archives at St. Francis de Porto. The Academy at Setubal aſſembled on the 30th paſt to hear a Diſcourſe made by Don Franciſco d'Aſſa-Figueiredo-Pantoja and by Doctor John of God de Sylva, upon a Problem laid down, viz. 'Whether Children ſhould ſhew more Reſpect to 'their Fathers, than Diſciples to their Maſters?--- A publick Act was held on the 5th Inſtant in the College Royal of Jeſuits, to celebrate the illuſtrious Actions of the late Marqueſs das Minas. Letters of the 11th of March laſt from the Holy Land, wrote by the Commiſſary General of the Franciſcans, ſay, that the Arabs have entirely plundred the City of Jaffa within eight Leagues of Jeruſalem, and have utterly ruined St. Peter's Monaſtery in which thoſe Fryars inhabited.

Paris, June 24. 'It was generally reported on 'the Day the King ſet out to Verſailles, that a Bed 'of Juſtice would immediately be appointed, and 'that amongſt other Matters to be determined by 'that Court, the Duke du Maine ſhould be reſtored 'to all his Honours and Prerogatives. Whatever 'may have ſince prevented the eſtabliſhing a Bed 'of Juſtice, 'tis again reported that one will be held 'very ſhortly; And that which adds a little to the 'Credit of this Report, is, the Obſervation made 'of the Cardinal du Bois going lately to the Hôtel 'de Seaux; that he was more than two Hours there 'in Conference with the Duke du Maine; that he 'afterwards viſited the Dutcheſs, and was received 'by both with great Marks of Reſpect and Eſteem. 'M. de Nocé, who was ſometime ago exiled to 'Tours, has Leave given him to return hither: 'His Siſter, Madame du Torre, who was in Nor- 'mandy, is already arrived here. In a ſhort Time 'here will be a Promotion of Brigadiers of the 'Horſe, like that which was made lately of the 'Infantry. Since the King has been at Verſailles, 'the Cardinal du Bois has had acceſs to his Maje- 'ſty in like Manner as was enjoyed in former Times, 'by the Cardinals de Richelieu and Mazarin; and 'tis probable that this new Privilege may have 'given Occaſion to the late Report of his being al- 'ready named Prime Miniſter.

Paris, June 27. The Infanta being ſomewhat indiſpoſed a few Days ago, the whole Court had Thoughts of returning on the 24th Inſtant to this City, but that Princeſs being better the next Day, prevented any further Deſign of the Court's Return on that Occaſion. The Duke of Orleans has given Orders to furniſh the Duke du Maine's Apartments at Verſailles; which Circumſtance leaves no Room to doubt of his being entirely reſtored to Favour. On the 22d Inſtant the Cardinal du Bois dined with the Duke du Maine at Seaux, and his Eminency ſtayed there till Evening; the next Day, M. le Blanc, Secretary at War, went alſo to Dinner there, and had more than ſix Hours Conference with the Duke; that Secretary came hither the ſame Evening from Seaux, ſtayed but a Quarter of an Hour at his own Houſe, and lay that Night at Verſailles. The Mareſchal de Villars has given Conſent, at laſt, that the Aſſembly of the Mareſchals of France ſhall for the future be held at his Houſe; and on the 25th Inſtant, thoſe Gentlemen opened there their Tribunal.

Falmouth, June 16. Yeſterday ſailed the Albany for London from New-England.

Liverpool, June 15. This Day came in the James and Allen from Nevis for this Place.

Briſtol, June 18. Yeſterday arrived the Mary Pink from Norway, and Perſey Galley from Oporto. This Day arrived the Seneca from Barbadoes, and Southwell from Virginia.

Deal, June 19. The King's Ships are ſtill here. Yeſterday arrived the Adventure from Nevis; Elizabeth and Sarah from St. Chriſtopher's; Hanover from Antegoa; and Viana Merchant from Oporto.

London, June 21.

On Tueſday laſt came on a Tryal at Guildhall, London, before the Lord Chief Juſtice Pratt, againſt Robert Marſhall, Joſeph Fletcher, John Berry, William Day, John Brottingham, William Ham, Francis Price, John Anderſon, and John Hill, Watermen on the River Thames, for wounding and reſiſting the Officers of the Cuſtoms in the Execution of their Duty, and they were found guilty; and we are inform'd, that the next Term they will be tranſported, purſuant to a late Act of Parliament made for that purpoſe.

London, June 21, 1722.

The following Question is to be ballotted for at the South-Sea-House this Day and To-morrow, viz.

That this Court doth agree to the Proposals now laid before them, for an Agreement with the Governour and Company of the Bank of England, and doth hereby empower the Court of Directors, to perfect the same in due Form of Law.

SIR,

Your Votes and Interest are desired for the Question, it being greatly for the Interest of the Company.

As it sells 100 l. Government Debt carrying 5 per Cent. Interest but for Five Years, and afterwards but 4 per Cent. for One Hundred and Five Pounds, which is greatly above the Value of any other Government Annuity of 5 per Cent. though not reduced to 4 per Cent. as this is.

As it sells Four Millions of this Government Debt at Once, which none can undertake but the Bank; whereby all the Company's Bonds, which have constantly been at so heavy Discounts, to the Oppression of all other Parts of Publick Credit, will be honourably discharged, the rest of our Stock will be clear of Incumberances, and we shall always for the future receive our Dividends regularly in Money.

As it will settle all the unhappy Differences between us and the Bank, whereby we shall mutually assist one another, and join to support publick Credit, and confound the Devices of the Jacobites, who incouraged themselves from our Divisions to raise a fresh Rebellion in these Kingdoms.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed the Managers for exchanging Tickets in the Lottery 1721, to execute the Acts of Parliament with Respect to the Benefit Tickets in each of the Lotteries for the Year 1719, that remained unsubscribed to the South-Sea Company; the said Managers give Notice, that in a few Days they shall be enabled to pay all Interest due on the said Tickets to Lady-Day 1722; and from that Time, the unsubscribed Benefit Tickets in the Lottery called the First Lottery, are to be taken in by the Cashier of the Bank, and a transferable Annuity of 4 l. per Cent. payable there for the principal Money to which the said Tickets are entituled; and the unsubscribed Benefit Tickets in the Lottery called the Second Lottery, are to be exchanged for Standing Orders, payable with Interest at 4 l. per Cent. per Annum in Course; the effecting of both which Services are under the Care of the said Managers, and will be entered upon and dispatched by them with all possible Expedition.

South-Sea-House, June 20, 1722.

Whereas by an Advertisement in the Gazette, of the 16th Instant, Notice was given, that the Transfer-Books of the South-Sea-Company would be shut from and after Friday the 22d Day of this Instant June: But for as much as by an Order of the General Court of the said Company held at Merchant-Taylors-Hall on Tuesday last, a Ballot upon a Question then proposed is to be taken on Thursday and Friday the 21st and 22d Instant, during which it is necessary that the said Transfer-Books should be shut: Notice is hereby given, that the said Transfer-Books will be kept shut on Thursday and Friday next, in Order to the taking the said Ballot, and will be opened again on Saturday the 23d of this Instant June, from Nine in the Morning till Eleven at Night, from and after which Time they will be kept shut, in Order to the making the Midsummer Dividend, and will be opened again on Monday the 5th of August next.

Notice is hereby given, That the Transfer-Books of the subscribed Equivalent Debt will be shut on Saturday the 23d Instant, and so continue till Wednesday the 4th Day of July next; and that the Warrants for the Midsummer Dividend of two and a half per Cent. will be ready to be delivered out to the Proprietors at their House in Freeman's-Court in Cornhill, on Thursday the 5th Day of July next, and afterwards every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, from Ten till One a-Clock.

SIR, Your Vote and Interest are humbly desired for JOSEPH BISHOPP, Citizen and Skinner, to be an Ale-Conner, in the Room of Mr. Crutcher, Deceas'd; who came on the Livery 27 Years ago, has sustained great Losses in Trade, has a Wife, by whom he has had 20 Children, several of them unprovided for, one of whom has been lame 16 Years. Your Petitioner, as in Duty bound, shall ever pray: NB. This is the Fourth Time of his Petitioning. The Election will be the 25th Instant.

SIR, Your Worship's Vote and Interest are humbly desired for GEORGE SMITH, Citizen and Dyer of London, to be one of the Ale-Conners, in the Room of Nicholas Crutcher, deceased; he has been a Liveryman of his Company for above Thirty Years, and serv'd most Offices in his Parish; and collected the Land-Tax in King William and Queen Anne's Reign; But through Losses and Misfortunes in Trade, is reduced to very low Circumstances; and being aged above 70 Years, and having an ancient Wife and Children, desires your Interest on Midsummer-Day next. And your Petitioner, as in Duty bound, shall ever pray, &c.
